Event Overview

HP and San Jose State University are co-hosting the Edge AI Hackathon on September 26. Student teams build and present throughout the day, judged by a panel from HP and industry. The schedule runs from early morning advisory check-ins through presentations, a lab tour, keynotes, and awards.

The goal is to walk away with a highlight recap video and short-form clips for HP's social channels, plus campus B-roll for HP/SJSU co-marketing, student interviews, full keynote recordings, and a few soundbites from the judges.

Creative Approach

The edit should follow the shape of the day instead of just being a highlight reel: calm campus shots in the morning, then it builds through the presentation rounds, peaks at the lab tour, and winds down with awards and the group photo.

I'll shoot handheld for most of the day and set up a second camera locked off during the keynotes so that's covered continuously while I'm free to grab interviews, reactions, and B-roll elsewhere.

Crew & Equipment

— Adeel Kazim, Two Point One Media — handheld/gimbal coverage, interviews, running point on the day

— Gear: 2 cameras, gimbal, tripod, 2 wireless lav mics, shotgun mic, spare batteries and memory cards

Coverage Schedule

Time	Activity	Coverage Plan
07:45	Advisory / HP / SJSU teams	Campus & hallway B-roll while it's quiet (for co-marketing)
08:30	Judge orientation & group confirmation	Candid shots of orientation, keep grabbing campus B-roll
09:00	Doors open — sign-in, room assignments	Arrivals, signage, room setup
09:15	First presentations (per room)	Move between rooms, grab the best 2–3 moments from each
11:00	Presentations conclude — migrate to Ballroom	Movement shots as everyone heads to the Ballroom
11:10	Judges pick top 2 teams per room	Keep shooting the migration
11:15	Physical AI / digital twin lab tour	This is the priority shot of the day
11:30	Lunch opens (students, volunteers, non-judges)	Grab judge soundbites right after the tour, before everyone splits up
11:45	Judges walk to Ballroom	Head to lunch for quick student interviews (2–3 questions each)
12:00	Lunch & Networking	Keep doing interviews, grab candid networking shots

Time	Activity	Coverage Plan
01:00	Keynotes (15 min each)	Second camera locked off on stage recording the whole time (audio's the priority here) while I grab crowd reactions
01:30	Final hack presentations	Handheld coverage of the finalists
02:30	Recognition — judges select winners	Reaction shots
02:40	Awards / photos	Close-up award moments
03:00	Closing remarks	Crowd reactions, record the remarks
03:10	Edge AI Hack group photo / end	Final group photo, then wrap gear

Interviews & Soundbites

— Judge soundbites — quick quotes right after the lab tour, before everyone heads to lunch (11:30–11:45)

— Student interviews — 2–3 quick questions each, during lunch (11:45–12:15)

Deliverables

— 1 highlight recap video (60–90 sec) for HP's primary social channels

— 1 short teaser cut (15–20 sec) for Reels, TikTok, and Stories

— 4 short-form social clips (15–30 sec each)

— At least one clip turned around same-day for live posting

— Campus & hallway B-roll for HP/SJSU co-marketing

— Edited student interview clips

— Full keynote recordings

— Judge soundbite clips

Let me know if you want any changes — happy to adjust before the 26th.
